

Locum Otolaryngologists: Your Next Adventure Awaits!

Location: Stanton Territorial Hospital in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories

If you're interested in a well-rounded general ENT practice accompanied by enticing incentives, hassle-free locum contracts, and the chance to serve remote communities in northern Canada, then this opportunity is for you!

As a locum Otolaryngologist, you will provide clinical, emergency, limited on-call coverage, outpatient, and inpatient services at Stanton Territorial Hospital (Stanton) in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories. You will be a part of our knowledgeable and supportive unit. Our ENTs also provide regular travel clinics throughout the Northwest Territories and the western portion of Nunavut. Our ENTs find this opportunity to experience the indigenous cultures and landscapes of the North very rewarding.

- 6 day locum schedules that can be extended! (Typically 2 Days O.R, 2 days clinic, & 2 days on-call)
- Guaranteed daily rate
- No practice management nor overhead
- Travel Stipend
- Furnished accommodation and travel arrangements provided

Typically, these positions require Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada Fellowship in General Surgery or equivalent certification and must be eligible for licensure to practice in the NWT.
